

Platypus, with the International House
Global Voices Lecture Program and the Center for International Studies, presents

WORKERS in A TIME OF WAR PAKISTAN AND THE CRISIS OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR MOVEMENT

A moderated panel discussion and audience Q&A bringing together three leading figures of the Pakistani labor movement to talk about workers rights, women's rights, the struggle to organize in the shadow of the Taliban, and the impact of the ongoing war in Afghanistan on the workers of Pakistan. These topics will be explored in light of the increasingly pressing need to reconstitute an international Left.
